His scientific method of diagnosing disease without asking the patient a single question is a surprise to them all, but very easily understood by the doctor, as he has made the human system a study for the past sixteen years, and his large experience in the hospital's of Europe and this country has enabled him to perform many wonderful cures which have been pronounced incurable.

WORK OF THE VARIOUS COMMITTEES AT THE CAPITOL.

Four Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars to Be Appropriated for the Mexican Pension Bill-Fixing Up a Commissioners' Slate-Senate Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19,-The house committee on appropriations have agreed to amendments to the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, appropriating $4,000,000 for payments under the Mexican pension bill and providing five chiefs of examining divisions in the pension office, at $1,800 a year each in place of five special examiners now receiving $1,400 a year and $3 a day for expenses. The question of granting an additional force of employes to carry out the provisions of the Mexican pension law was referred to a sub-committee.

The naval committee agreed to report favorably the bills to equalize the pay of graduates from the naval academy and increasing the pay of assistant engineers by restoring certain cadet engineers.

Military affairs heard some informal remarks by Gen. Sheridan on the subject of coast defenses, in connection with the consideration of the McAdoo bill. Gen. Sheridan said that we needed guns more than anything else; and that if we got them, places would be provided for shem. Chairman Bragg suggested that a board of competition be provided to test guns of all kinds, and this will also be considered at further meetings of the committee.

The committee on commerce will have a special meeting to-morrow morning to consider the Ead's ship railway canal bill.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 .- Resolutions from the Maine legislature were presented and laid on the table setting forth that as the rights of American fishermen in Canadian waters have been greatly abridged, as their treatment has been in direct violation of comity and good neighborhood, the enactment of laws by the American government is favored so that

Mr. Dolph offered a resolution authorizing CANCERS, TUMORS the commerce committee to sit during the recess at such places as it may deem proper, the commerce committee to sit during the and in fact nearly all the diseases to which to inquire into the laws governing the use of appropriated for rivers and harbors the character and condition of the work, etc. Referred to the commerce committee.

Mr. Evarts presented the conference re port on the polygamy bills, a substitute for both senate and house bills. Mr. Vest said as a matter of course the bill would become law, but he could not vote for it. No amount of criticism would affect his course as a legislator. In his judgment, the bill violated the principle of the constitution as to rights of property. One of the provisions was a naked, bald simple confiscation, and nothing else. The same might be done in regard to any other religious corporation in the country. It was no answer to say that it applied only to the Mormon church.

The senate at 3 o'clock adopted the antipolygamy conference report by a vote of 37 to 13, and took up the river and harbor bill

Will There Be an Extra Session?

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.-Some of the Re publican senators think there will be special session of the senate after the 4th of March for the consideration of treaties. There are several treaties now pending. The senate has not had time during the short session to consider them. The so called session of the senate might last for a month or six weeks. If the president should call the senate together in special session he could delay se lecting his secretary of the treasury until Mr. Manning's resignation takes effect on April 1. It would also give him more time for the selecting of the interstate commerce commissioners. If he waits until after March 4 he can make some selection from the members of congress who have not been re-elected. None of those now can be appointed until their terms expire. If the appointment of the commission should be delayed until March 4 Mr. Morrison would have a good chance. His name has been mentioned to-day in connection with the office of secretary of the Fixing Up a Commissioner's Slate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.-There is hardly a doubt that the president has settled upon three of the commissioners, Clark, of Massachusetts; Kernon, of New York; and Bragg, of Alabama. The south will claim at least two members of the commission, and should this be granted it is safe to say that Senator Maxey will be the other southern representative. The other two will come doubtless from Illinois, and either Wisconsin or Minnesota. There is much talk about the possibility of Gen. Cerro Gordo Williams, of Kentucky; and Gen. A. H. Buckner, of Missouri; though it is hardly probable either of them will be recognized. The secretary to the commission will be selected from some railroad office, and will be a man familiar with the making and compiling of rates.

"Cerro Gordo" Williams Gets His Pension. WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The first person to receive the benefit of the Mexican pension law was "Cerro Gordo" Williams, of Kentucky. Gen. Williams filed his application in this city Wednesday, and received his certificate yesterday, which he will present at the Louisville agency and receive in return $8, the amount of his pension.

A CONVICT'S CONFESSION.

Man Imprisoned Twelve Years for a Crime Committed By His Wife.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 19.—The senate state prison committee visited Stillwater yesterday, and were furnished with a peculiar written confession, addressed to Ignatius Donnelly, by convict Michael Kelly, an aged Irishman, once a resident of St. Paul and sentenced for life twelve years ago for killing Barney Lamb. Kelly writes:

"Unfortunate Barney Lamb was my near neighbor. We became involved in a quarrel and fight. Before we commenced to fight I had my cavalry sword with me, which I gave to my wife to take to the house, but she did not, and when Lamb had me by the hair and held my head opposite his waist, my wife, supposing he would do me bodily harm, cried to him to let go, at the same time shoving him from me, and that was the time the fatal wound was given with my sword. But the sword was not in my hands. I did not divulge this fact at the trial, for I had no fear of being convicted, as I knew I did not kill Lamb, and I was moved by a more powerful incentive, most sacred to me next to God. She was my wife, the mother of my children, and I loved her."

Kelly claims to have served in the late war for five years. His prison record is good.

Trouble Over a Car Load of Beer. DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 19 .- A car load of beer marked Hurlbut & Hess, and billed to C. H. Ward, one of the firm, who, as well as the other members, holds a pharmacy license, was seized yesterday and stored in the constabulary warehouse near the court house. Mr. Hurlbut, a son-in-law of ex-Chief Justice Cole, one of the most active prohibition attorneys, sued out a replevin writ, and with a procession of drays went to the cellar yesterday afternoon. One dray had been loaded and had started, when Constable Pierce jumped up beside the driver, and with a navy revolver under his nose persuaded him to drive back, which episode was witnessed by fully 500 people. Lawyers think Mr. Ward, of the firm, will get the goods back, but they say it is a close shave. They also say that unless they get the stuff released, the Wabash company will be liable under the

The Lee-Burton Rifle.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 19 .- Official information has been received by the government that the Lee-Burton rifle, lately adopted for use in the British army, has been discarded. It appears that the gun is a combination of two American rifles, the Lee and the Burton. which was got up in Enfield arsenal and tested several times with apparent satisfaction. So sure were the military officials of the entire success of the new rifle that it is reported they manufactured a half million of the guns shortly after its adoption by the war office committee. About a month ago a number of rifles were distributed to an English regiment stationed at Durham, and it was found by experience that the rifles were unsuited for the army, as the recoil was too great and the stock too straight. It was, however, noticed that the rifle was a magnificent one for accurate shooting.

Cattle Dying by Thousands.

St. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 19 .- H. E. Simpson, postmaster at Albright, Mont., writes as follows: "The cattle in the ranges are dying by the thousands. Our winter has been comparatively mild, but we have not had any chinooks that we generally have. I have lost 50 per cent, of my cattle. A large number of native steers have been driven into the bottoms by the storms and are dying like flies. For days the range cattle have been coming into the valley by the thousands, wandering back and forth before the storm till they drop in their tracks." A stock man of eighteen years' experience writes from Billings: "This is the hardest winter I have ever experienced. I estimate my loss at 50 per cent. now and think it will reach 75 per

CHICAGO BOODLERS.

It Is Believed that Over a Million Dollars

Has Been Stolen From Cook County. CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—The developments in the boodle sensation of the county board yesterday presage an earthquake shortly. It is believed that the county commissioners and others of the board who will be criminally held number thirteen. It is said that Mr. Schneider, the county plumber, is in the custody of Boland's detective agency, and has made a full confession, implicating the others. The gang are charged with stealing from $900,000 to $1,300,000.

The suspected men are in a panic, especially those of prominence, and a few, it is said, will follow the examples of Fulgraff and Duffy, the New York boodlers, and go on the stand and testify against their coconspirators. It is stated that Pinkerton is employed by Mike McDonald and the county gang to "queer" the efforts of the prosecution. Some of the politicians are expected to start for Canada, and detectives are watching them.

-MANGANESE AND IRON.

GEORGIA'S RICHEST ORE BEDS TO BE DEVELOPED ON A GRAND SCALE.

The Most Important Enterprise in Georgia Since the War-A Purchase of Seventeen Thousand Acres of Land-Another Million Dollar Rolling Mill.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 19.—By far the most important enterprise that has been inaugurated in Georgia since the war is now fully under headway, and is being pushed with much vigor and determination by a syndicate composed of the presidents of two banks and ten other of the most substantial citizens of the state. The origin of this enterprise is the purchase recently of what is known as the Etowah property, three miles from Cartersville and about fifty miles from Atlanta.

The property consists of about seventeen thousand acres of the choicest mineral and most productive agricultural lands in Georgia a large portion of which is covered by a dense forest of oak and pine timber. Much of the tract fronts on the Western & Atlantic railroad, and before the war a short railroad, built by the owners of the property, ran through a portion of the tract to several mines and furnaces which were then being operated. Gen. Sherman in his march to the sea destroyed the road. At that time several furnaces and rolling mills were in successful operation, the product of which was nails and merchant iron, much of which was sold in Georgia and adjacent states. During the war a considerable portion of the product of these mines was used in making horse-

The Etowah Iron and Manganese company, which has recently acquired this magnificent property, will commence at once to lay iron on the old roadbed, and extend the line through the tract so as to give ample facilities for the development of every acre of this immense territory. A large force of hands will be put to work building this line as soon as the survey, which is now going on, is completed. Negotiations are being made for the construction of several hundred houses for the use of the operators who will be employed in the various enterprises that will soon be established there. The Etowah river, noted for its immense water power, runs through the greater portion of the land, besides which several smaller streams, giving additional water power, traverse the property, and, after enriching the lands through which they run, flow into the Etowah. Four miles of this river show a fall of seventy feet, and furnish a water power of nearly twelve thousand horse at the lowest stage of water. The character of minerals to be found is princicipally iron and manganese, while vast quantities of baryta, ocher, limestone, sandstone, tale and asbestos are to be found in every section. The manganese is of the best quality, many samp'es of which yield 55 per cent. of manganese metal, and is found in immense quantities, so much so that the supply is believed to be exhaustless. Several large shipments of it have been made to Europe, and there is a ready demand for all that can be taken These deposits of manganese are thought to be all that there are in Georgia, and in consequence their value cannot be overestimated. To make any kind of showing in taking out this wealth of manganese it will require the removal of several million tons, and then an abundance will be left to supply even the most exorbitant demands.

The iron ore to be had on the property not only abounds in vast and measureless quantities, but the output from the various openings that have been made show a remarkable variety in the way of quality. The heavy growth of oak and pine timber which covers a considerable portion of the tract will furnish an abundance of charcoal, and several charcoal chemical furnaces will be constructed at once, so as to utilize the wood. Besides this, the company will construct an immense smelting mill for manganese and another for iron ore.

Another enterprise which will be established will be a million dollar rolling-mill for the manufacture of steel rails, and several other mills for the production of merchant and bar iron. . Other enterprises, such as a mill for making nails, one for the manufacture of horse-shoes-and, in fact, numberless factories for turning out all kinds of goods to be produced from iron and steel will be put The construction of car-works and a plant for the production of car wheels is also being favorably discussed, with a strong probability that both of these enterprises will be under headway within the next eighteen months.

The old flouring mill, the remnants of which are still to be seen, and when in operation before the war produced about five hundred barrels of flour daily, will be rebuilt on the most improved style. These enterprises are among the number now determined upon. As the work of development progresses others of like importance will be inaugurated. With its magnificent water power, its boundless forests of oak and pine timber, and the inexhaustible supply of manganese and iron ores, manufactories and enterprises of all characters can be established there upon a sound footing and made to pay from the Leginning.

OUR SEA COAST DEFENSES."

The Toast Responded to By Senator Hawley at a Baltimore Bat quet.

BALTIMORE Feb. 19.-The Merchants' and Manufacturers' association held their annual banquet at the Carrolton yesterday evening. Covers were laid for 200 persons. There were many distinguished people present, including United States Senators Hawley, of Connecticut; Morgan, of Alabama; Gorman and Wilson, of Maryland; Representatives W. C. T. Breckenridge, of Arkansas; Long, of Massachusetts; Butterworth, of Ohio; Henderson, of Iowa; Norwood, of Georgia; Bacon, of New York; and Ministers Romero, of Mexico; and Sateldo, of Venezu la. Mr. John Hurst presided. Senator Hawley sat on his left and Senator Morgan on the right. The speaking did not begin until 11:30 p. m. Senator Morgan, of Alabama, responded to the toast of "Our Foreign Relations." Mr. Morgan confined himself to a discussion of the subject just so far as it related to the South American and Central American republics, and advocated a closer commercial relationship between these republics and the United Senator Joseph R. Hawley spoke for fif-teen minutes about "Our Sea Coast Defenses." He said we had no defenses, so there could be little said about them. "We are a people of peace; we want no annexation, not even an island, unless we can wade to it, for we have no navy to take care of it. There was nothing so striking as the carelessness of the people of this country for the last twenty-three years with regard to coast defenses. There was something splendid in the audacity of this people, walloring about like an old whale defenseless, without navy or guns, or harbor defenses of any kind. He said that we improvised a navy during the civil war, but it was a different thing to improvise a navy for a foreign war. The ingenuity and enterprise are in this country to build up a navy such as we had years ago, and he hoped to see it done, We are practically at the mercy of foreign nations, even of Chili. We don't meditate war, but we should have defenses so that we can have the great American privilege of talking back. We have a duty and a place to take among nations." He said that he was proud of the unanimity with which the senate within the last ten days had voted $50,000,000 to improve our sea coast defenses.

The other toasts and responses were as follows: "The Fishery Question," Hon. John D. Long.

"What Shall be Done with the Surplus?" Hon. W. C. P. Breckenridge. "The New South," Hon. Thomas M. Nora German, editor of a Bavarian weekly paper called Baierische Wochenblatt, died vesterday morning at the residence of Warner R eve, with whom he boarded. A certificate of death was duly issued, and a burial permit given by the health commissioners. Yesterday afternoon word was received at police headquarters that Rau's body was in the dissecting room of the Maryland university. Upon investigation by the police it was discovered that the body had not been buried at all, but had been sold to the medical college by Rieve for $10. Rieve was arrested. He explain d that he did not sell the body for his own benefit, and that he was only carrying out the wish of Rau, and did not know he was violating a law. A post mortem developed the fact that death was due to exposure and excessive drink. Rieve will have hearing.

A Brutal Prize Fight.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—George Ducharme, better known as Tom Chandler's unknown, and James Dohogany, who fought a draw with Frank Glover on three different occasions, fought twenty rounds at a point just outside the city limits last night. The fight was witnessed by about fifty board of trade operators, and was for the gate receipts, which amounted to $500. The fight was so fierce and the blows that were exchanged were so severe that many of the spectators weakened and were obliged to leave the room. Ducharme had the best of the fight all the way through, and finally knocked Dohogany out. At the close both men were covered with blood. Their jaws and eyes were swollen and black, and their features generally distorted. The affair had been kept very quiet, and the police were unaware that any such event was going on.

THE Western Tobacco Journal, of Cincinnati, thinks a factory here for the manufacture of plug tobacco "would yield big returns, if properly managed." Such has been our opinion all along, but the trouble is to get some enterprising citizen to take hold of the matter and work it up. The factory at Lexington has been in operation over a year, now, and has done a successful business. Maysville is just as favorably situated, and a factory here would pay just as well. At least, that's the way we think.

CONGRESSMAN WILLIS, of Louisville, seems to be imbued with the idea that he was sent to Washington City just for the purpose of putting the Educational bill through. Willis may be a good Democrat, but he evidently hasn't his party with him in this matter. The Cincinnati Enquirer, commenting on the subject, remarks that "it will be a sad day for the perpetuity of our Federal system when our children have to be educated from the National Treasury. It is not to be believed that the sound common sense of the country will consent to it." If the bill ever reaches the President it will likely meet with a fate similar to that of the Dependency Pension act.

COLONEL CASSIUS M. CLAY, Republican candidate for Governor, recently wrote to President Cleveland, protesting against the importation of Australian rabbits. Mr. Clay says he knows all about these rabbits, and that they would prove a greater nuisance than the English sparrow. Some one told the negroes of Paris about the Colonel's letter, and the other day after he had spoken at that point, the following note was handed to the Bourbon News:

CONFESSION.

Believe me, dear, unyielding though I be, Ambitions flourish only in the sun In noisy daylight every race is run, With lusty pride for all the world to see. When darkness sinks the earth in mystery.

When eye, or ear, or sight, or sound is none But death, a tide that waits to bear us on, And life, a loosening anchor in the sea, When time and space are huge about the soul, And ties of custom lost beyond recall, And courage as a garment in the flame,

Then all my spirit breaks without control, Then the heart opens, then the hot tears fall To prove me wholly woman that I am. -Dora Read Goodale in Harper's.

A day's work is supposed to be ten hours, but the boys are compelled to remain until they are "let off," and in many cases these little chaps work from fourteen to sixteen hours a day. For the extra hours he receives extra pay of five cents each, so that assuming fourteen hours to be the limit, in addition to his regular pay he would receive five cents an hour for four hours, or twenty cents, for which he gives up his rest, his sleep, his recreation-pretty tough.

We little know the temptations to which they are subjected. I have seen little fellows on the streets at midnight and in the early hours of the morning, sometimes on legitimate errands, often not. I overtook one not long since and questioned him for a moment as we walked along. He said he had been running for several hours in the service of a sick man. He had been to the doctor's two or three times, to the drug store several times, for a nurse and to the postoffice, and he was literally fagged out. The companies are as ready to place their instruments in a barroom as in a church, in a house of ill fame as in a private dwelling. and the boys, according to their turn and not according to their ages or experience. are sent to these places at all hours of the night, and to sporting-houses, dives, all manner of infamous rendezvous, where their eyes are greeted with orgiccal developments of various nature, where they acquire habits of drinking and smoking, where they meet men as bad as the women with whom they consort, who drink and make them drink, who solicit them to indulgence in every possible vice and subject them to indignities and outrages which would paralyze, one would suppose, the society organized for the prevention of cruelty to children, if by an accident they should ever know of the beastliness to which children are exposed in this Christian city. Little chaps are forced to buy beer by the big boys in the office, and good boys who never drink are expected to put money in toward paying for it as much as bad boys who want the drink. They think it is great fun at times to badger each other and not only to tempt but to force boys to all manner of dirt and evil. As a rule, the offices are contracted and crowded, overheated and badly ventilated. A boy may be out in the rain or the snow for hours and on returning seat himself near a heater, whence, after steaming for half an hour or so, he is called and starts out

Haberton's "Budge" and "Toddy."

The following anecdote of "Helen's Babies" has not heretofore been published: The babies went with their mother to visit her father, D. P. M. Hastings, of Hartford, whose brother, a missionary in India, married a sister of President Cleveland. The doctor at that time lived in a house with high steps, having his office in the basement.

There was an inside presence and the rides in the basement.

There was an inside passageway through the cellar from the office to the living rooms, and during the visit of the little boys to their grandfather the cellar stairs were one day found sprinkled with little pieces of paper. When questioned as to their object the children explained that they put the bits of paper there in order to find their way back from the office by their aid. Their mother had evidently been reading Grimm's fairy tales to them. One of the boys is now a well grown youth. The other died while still young, and his parents, although they had then two children younger than Budge and Toddy, adopted a little girl of the age of their lost boy .- Buffalo Courier.

Zalinski the Torpedo Boat Man.

Lieut, Zalinski, whose experiments with a dynamite throwing gun and a submarine torpedo at Fort Lafayette have attracted so much attention lately, is a well built, mid-dle aged man with dark hair just beginning to show a tinge of gray. He makes a friend of everybody he meets by his kindly and modest manners. In speaking of the progress in his work by which he has advanced from throwing a charge of fifteen pounds of dynamite to a distance of half a mile to the throwing of 200 pounds of nitro-gelatine to a distance of over a mile with safety, he always uses the pronoun we, referring to the workmen who assist him. He uses the names of the workmen much more frequently than he refers to his own efforts. He lives with his family in a comfortable cottage in the officers' row at Fort Hamilton, where, those of his friends who know him intimately say, he gives dinners that are even more perfect in their way than his experiments with engines of war .- New York Sun.

Labouchere's Glass of Champagne.

When at Frankfort I had the honor of serving under the late Sir Alexander Malet, and certainly a more kindly chief was not to be found in the service. His legation was accredited to several of the minor courts, and at one of them I was even more appreciated than my chief. This was why. Occasionally there was a ball at the court, which we were expected to attend. At my first ball supper I found myself at a table next to a grandee, gorgeous in stars and ribbons. The servant came to pour out champagne. Now, I detest this wine, so I shook my head. The grandee nudged me and said: "Let him pour it out." This I did, and he explained to me that the potentate whose hospitality we were enjoying never gave his guests more than one glass, "so you see, if I drink yours I shall have two,' and he suited the action to the word. After this there used to be quite a struggle to sit near me at court suppers. - London Truth.

LABOR MOTES.

[Commun cated.]

A bill prohibiting the employment of children under the age of fifteen years in workshops and factories will be submitted to the next Legislature of this State. It is hoped that it will become a law. In this city, every workday morning may be seen troops of children of tender years hurrying to the factory, from which grayhaired men have been turned away to make room for labor saving machines operated by these youthful breadwinners, and for every child so employed there is another pauper added to the city's poor list. For every dinner pail swung (merrily it may be) by the ten-year-old boy on his way to the factory there is an Rev. W. W. Green reports twenty-four empty cuphoard in some home in this city. The ex-soldiers of the Confederate and Union armies, who so bravely fought against each other when chattel slavery was to be overthrown, have come together by joining Loyal Assembly, K. of L., and are determined to act in concert for the is "Capital Divided, Labor Unites us." They seek to establish a sentiment among the toiling masses who furnish the rank and file of all armies in all ages, and that peace, and not war, is the toilers' eman-

Individual members of the K. of L. should not attempt to use the boycott unwarrantably. It is too sharp a weapon to be drawn, except by official command, and the order of the proper authority should be obtained.

The K. of L. wants to see a party that will wipe our bonded debt out of existence by issuing legal tender greenbacks backed up by the Government. Such a greenback is just as good as the bonds themselves, as their value is in the fact portion of them is payable in gold, as there is not gold enough in the whole country to pay one-half of them.

The K. of L. should remember that next August will occur the election of a member to the Legislature, and they should not vote for any but true friends

The Cincinnati Post says: "Eureka Assembly 4940, K. of L., cigar-makers, has extended the time in which members may choose between that order and the International Union one week for union men and two weeks for K. of L. men. Nearly all the International leaders in this city have been forced out of

Quite a sensation occurred at the meeting of the K. of L. on last Wednesday a cup of coffee, tea, or thin chocolate in the morning, with a small piece of bread.

THE LABORERS' HARD LOT.

ANOTHER NEW YORK STRIKE LIABLE TO PROVE A FAILURE.

The Coopers Have Lost Confidence in District Assembly No. 49-The Labor Ouestion Agitating the Southern Farmers and Planters-Other Labor News.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.-The strike of coopers in this city has not yet interfered with the trade of the millers, partly because it is now the dull season and there is an immense stock of barrels on hand, and from the fact the Knights of Labor Assembly No. 49 have not yet been able to get control of the men employed at one of the largest cooperages in the vicinity. Another reason that the strike is a failure is that the desire of many of the coopers to return to work causes a lack of confidence in District Assembly No. 49.

The cause of this want of faith is the flasco made by the longshoremen's strike, and the repudiation by Forty-nine of all responsibil-ity when failure had to be acknowledged and the refusal to support those longshoremen who had given up good positions to obey the call of the committee to come out. The master coopers have large stocks of barrels on hand and a plentiful supply can be obtained from the many little cooperages which only exploy from six to twenty men, and which are scattered all over the city.

One man says he will bring colored men from his North Carolina shops if the strikers won't accept his terms. He will keep them out anyway now until April 1. He always has paid the men's own rates and treated them right, and now he will conduct his business as he pleases and not as the men chose to dictate. If necessary barrels will be brought from Minneapolis, where there are millions always on hand. But it is not expected that this will be necessary. Many of the coopers who went out only did so from fear of personal injury and would embrace the first chance they can to get to work.

The longshoremen are gradually finding places, if not on the pier, elsewhere, and it is estimated that two-thirds of the strikers are now at work.

Peculiar Labor Phase in the South. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 19 .- The labor question is still agitating the farmers and planters of the hill country of Cent: Mississippi, and those who are losing their hands are making it hot for the labor agents. The latest sensation in this line is the expulsion of G. H. Hammond, an old resident of Harriston, on the Mississippi Valley road, from that town for inducing negroes to leave the county for the swamp. Hammond is well to do. He was prominent in county politics in Cowan county for some years, but lately went to Harrison, where he opened a hotel and boarding-house, and went into business as a merchant. He prospered there, and was able to purchase considerable real estate in the town. For some weeks past he has been suspected of being a silent partner in one of the labor agencies operating in that neighborhood.

As the planters continued to lose their tenants, detectives were engaged to discover who it was persuaded so many negroes to leave the county, and after a party of twenty-five first-class field hands departed through Harriston, it was discovered that Hammond was the agent who enticed them to leave. The agents had been warned away from Harriston, and no exception was made in Hammond's case. He was not molested until the detectives were fully satisfied that it was through him so many negroes had been carried off. P. B. McClure, of Fayette, was found to be equally guilty, and an indignation meeting was held at the Favette court house. A committee of twenty-five was selected to wait on the men and warn them away. McClure was notified, and at once left the place. The planters called on Hammond and gave him twenty-four hours in which to leave. He was not allowed to argue, and as the committee evidently meant business, he did not hesitate. Both men are now refuging in Vicksburg.

The K. of L. at the Cincinnati Convention. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19.—Ceneral Master Workman Powderly says the order of the Knights of Labor must not be dragged into politics. If local assemblies elect delegates to the Cincinnati convention next week those delegates can only speak for the locals that send them. The Knights of Labor as an organization will not be represented at that convention, and any action, political or otherwise, adopted there will not be binding upon the members of the Knights of Labor.

Tanners' Strike a Failure. PITTSBURG, Feb. 19.—The Alleghany tanners who struck three weeks ago for an advance in wages of twenty-five cents per day have decided to resume work next Monday at the old wages.

Dynamite Works Blown Up. BRADFORD, Pa., Feb. 19 .- The compound works of Alfred & Dean, at Eldred, Pa., blew up at 4:30 yesterday. The works manufacture a species of dynamite. It was while mixing the glycerine and chemicals that the works caught fire. The three employes deserted the place and all escaped in safety but one man named Elliott, who was badly cut about the head. Five dwelling houses and a saw mill close by were wrecked, and window glass was broken for a mile away. Three women, one the wife of Mr. Alfred, were in one of the wrecked houses and was badly hurt.

England Buying War Horses in America. PITTSBURG, Feb. 19.—The Chronicle-Telegraph publishes a lengthy article, in which it is stated that two months ago a number of Englishmen came over to this country, who have since been circulating through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Kentucky, engaged in the purchase of horses. These men are believed to be secret agents sent out by the English government to secure horses for use in the event of war. The particular points necessary in the selection of horses was that they should be large and perfectly sound and able to withstand unusual hardship.

A Railroad in Hard Luck.

MONTREAL, Feb. 19. -The Canadian Pacific has been in hard luck this winter, owing to the severe weather. Some sections have been completely blocked for about three weeks and no through trains have went west of Winnipeg for twenty-three days. The obstructions have been worst in the Selkirk range. In many places the snow sheds have been crushed by the weight of snow upon them and the situation has been further aggravated by a number of land-slides. Taken altogether the position the officers are placed in is very discouraging.

The Ohio River Again Rising. CINCINNATI, Feb. 19 .- The river began rising again last night at the rate of two inches an hour, and by 4 a. m. had reached forty-eight feet and ten inches on the marks. The rise continued through the forenoon and there was general apprehension that we would have more trouble from a flood rise than we had week before last. Ever since that time the river has been lingering within a foot or two of the danger line. With such a big river the result of recent heavy rains especially those of last night, was greatly

The boys were all badly injured and one may die. Two are delirious to-day. Mr. and Mrs. Standard were thrown to the ground, but not seriously

The Deed of an Assassin.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 1. -On Tuesday night the citizens of Hopeville were attracted to the house of Peter Kammack by pistol shots. They found Kammack and his wife on the floor with several bullet wounds and bleeding copiously. Kammack claims that a masked man entered the house with a revolver and a dirk in either hand and opened fire on them. One shot hit Kammack on the leg and two took effect in the woman's breast. He then stabbed the woman in a shocking manner and escaped. Mrs. Kammack died from the effects of her wounds. A posse is after the assassin, but no clue has been found that will lead to his arrest, Boodlers in Quebec.

QUEBEC, Feb. 19.—The Mercury last night charged Charles Langlier, a prominent advocate and a brother of the mayor, with having received $15,000 from H. J. Beemer, a Montreal contractor, for securing for him a con-tract for the city water works. The article gives the names of thirteen persons, among whom the boodle was divided. The mayor is charged with having received $64,200, and Advocate Langlier's share is said to have been $5,030. The shares of counsellors and others are said to have ranged from $2,100 to $5,050.
